

WPC MEMBER SURVEY - Funding & Payment Structures

FINAL VERSION – please complete and return to stephen.armstrong@worldpharmacycouncil.org by 31 March 2021 if possible. Thank you.

INTRODUCTION

This survey is designed to provide WPC members with a better understanding of funding and formal payment structures for community pharmacy in each WPC country. This includes payments for dispensing, payments for pharmacy services, and other general or specific purpose payments that are specific to community pharmacy.

The survey does not seek to collect specific fee levels or payment amounts. The focus is on the structure and types of payments, and on what is paid for by each funding stream, and on the relative significance of each component. The focus is not on comparing funding levels or fee amounts.

In some countries the funding arrangements may vary significantly between states, regions or funders. This survey is not intended to capture every variation. As far as possible, please provide the most appropriate answer in a national context.

The results of this survey will not be made public. Findings will be distributed only to WPC members only, for your internal use.

Responses, and any questions relating to this survey, should be emailed to the WPC Chief Economist at stephen.armstrong@worldpharmacycouncil.org. If possible, responses would be appreciated by 31 March 2021. Thank you.

DEFINITIONS

To guide your completion of this questionnaire, please read the following definitions.

Fee-for service payments

Fee-for-service payments have traditionally been the most common types of payments in the community pharmacy context (and also in most other healthcare settings) and are an amount paid per occasion of service.

Capitation-style payments (including casemix or bundled payments)

Capitation-style payments are those calculated based on the number of patients (and/or the types of patients, as in a casemix model) rather than on the number of occasions of service. Capitation-style payments may be bundled payments that cover more than one service type (this may also be the case with outcomes-based payments or lump-sum payments).

Outcomes-based payments (including performance-based or value-based payments)

In an outcomes-based model, payments (or payment levels) depend on defined measures of performance, benchmarks or targets. These may include direct or indirect measurements of patient outcomes, or metrics related to quality.

Lump sum payments per pharmacy

Lump sum payments are amounts per pharmacy paid at regular intervals (eg. monthly, quarterly or annually) to either all pharmacies or particular groups of eligible pharmacies. Lump sum payments differ from Capitation-style or Outcome-based payments in that the amounts are not related to the number of patients serviced or to any specific performance measure. Examples of lump sum payments include payments made to all registered pharmacies, or to all pharmacies that are registered for a particular program. The amount of lump sum payments may vary from pharmacy to pharmacy based on certain criteria (but will not vary directly in proportion to service volume, as that would make it a fee-for-service).

Section 1 - Dispensing

Fees and other payments for dispensing are those amounts that are additional to the cost price of the medicine, and represent a gross profit margin on the dispensing service.

Please note that this question is not referring to the pharmacy's purchase price of the medicine. It is referring only to amounts additional to the purchase price, that are intended to ensure the viability of the dispensing service.

Question 1.1 - Through what process(es) are fees and/or other payments for dispensing determined? (please select all that apply):

The margin of pharmacies for dispensing and selling to the public of industrially manufactured medicines for human use, for those whose industrial price is below a threshold, is fixed as a percentage of the retail price excluding taxes. For those above this threshold, an amount per container is fixed according to the industrial price. Finally, the margins of the pharmacies corresponding to prescriptions or dispensing orders for industrially manufactured medicines for human use dispensed with funds will be established by applying deductions to the monthly invoice of each pharmacy according to the invoice.

Question 1.3

In relation to dispensing, are different payment structures or levels applicable for specific types of pharmacy (only include those pharmacies supplying to the community, not hospital pharmacies), such as those listed below?

(*) Royal Decree-Law 9/2011, to guarantee accessibility and quality of service, as well as adequate pharmaceutical care for users of the National Health System, pharmacies exempt from deductions will have a corrective index applied in their favor for the margins for the dispensing of medicines charged to public funds. Such pharmacies must also meet a series of requirements, such as annual sales below a threshold value.

Question 1.4

Please briefly describe the market situation with regard to purchasing of prescription-only medicines by pharmacies. Specifically, please briefly cover the following points:

- What, if any, regulations exist with regard to the purchase price of prescription-only medicines?
- Is there a regulated cap or limit on the amount of purchasing margin made/retained by pharmacies?
- Are reimbursement prices regularly reviewed in response to changes in market prices?
- Does the government (or do other third party payers) conduct a competitive process amongst drug manufacturers to determine prices and/or which products are available to be funded?

The Law on Guarantees and Rational Use of Medicines and Medical Devices devotes its Title VIII to the public financing of medicines. This title regulates the system for setting and reviewing industrial prices and distribution and dispensing margins by community pharmacies, incorporating, as a criterion for price setting, the assessment of the therapeutic usefulness of the medicine and the degree of innovation, because of the effective application of the principle of selective financing of medicines.

Royal Decree 823/2008, of May 16, 2008, provides for the margins, deductions and discounts corresponding to the distribution and dispensing of medicines for human use. Subsequently, this Royal Decree is modified in the section referring to the margins and deductions corresponding to the dispensation to the public of pharmaceutical specialties for human use, by Royal Decree-Law 4/2010, of March 26, on the rationalization of pharmaceutical expenditure charged to the National Health System. The margin of pharmacies for dispensing and selling to the public of industrially manufactured medicines for human use, for those whose industrial price is below a threshold, is fixed as a percentage of the retail price excluding taxes. For those above this threshold, an amount per container is fixed according to the industrial price. Finally, the margins of the pharmacies corresponding to prescriptions or dispensing orders for industrially manufactured medicines for human use dispensed with funds will be established by applying deductions to the monthly invoice of each pharmacy according to the invoice.

However, there is currently no procedure for tendering medicines to be dispensed when they are prescribed at the expense of the National Health System.

Question 1.5

Questions 1.1 to 1.4 provided a high level overview of funding arrangements for dispensing. If you think other details would be useful to WPC members to allow a better overall understanding of your country's funding model for dispensing, please provide further details below:

Section 4 - Payments not relating to specific services (including payments relating to quality, standards or pharmacy accreditation)

This section relates to any other fees or payments made to some or all community pharmacies as part of formal arrangements, which are not specifically related to dispensing or to other services. These may include, but are not limited to, payments relating to staff training, records, compliance with premises standards or other general quality measures. It may also include payments for specific groups of pharmacies, such as those in rural areas.

Under each of the following headings, please briefly describe any fees or payments that are not related to dispensing or to other services (and therefore have not been covered in earlier sections). If there are no payments in the category, simply write "None".

Question 4.1 – Please complete the table below

Type of payment	Description(s) and payment source(s) (only include significant payments that have not been included in previous sections)
Capitation-style payments (including casemix or bundled payments)
Outcomes-based, performance-based or value-based payments
Lump sum payments per pharmacy, including establishment or infrastructure payments or subsidies (such as for IT, automation, consultation infrastructure and staff training) <small>(Note: Lump sum payments may include payments that vary from pharmacy to pharmacy based on certain criteria, but not in direct proportion to service volume)</small>

Section 5 - Relative size of funding components

Question 5.1

Of all of the fees and other payments that you have listed in this document, please list the top five in order of value for a typical community pharmacy in your country. For example, a list may be (1) dispensing fees, (2) payments for medication reviews, (3) outcomes-based quality payments, etc.

In the right hand column, please provide your best estimate of the proportion of overall third-party funding (government and insurer) each of the listed fees or payments represents for a typical (average) community pharmacy. A rough estimate will be fine, as this is only to provide a guide as to the relative importance of each fee/payment.

- Renegotiation after a set period of time
- Annual adjustment based on an inflation measure
- Adjustment within a fixed or pre-determined pool of funding
